FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 10/17/2019

Thornton Fractional District 215 Students Acknowledged for Achievements on 2019 Advanced Placement Exams

Students and former students of Thornton Fractional North and Thornton Fractional South High Schools will be acknowledged for their success on 2019 Advanced Placement (AP) exams by the District 215 Board of Education at the board meeting on October 22. Passing Advanced Placement exams in high school can allow students to earn college credits or allow students to skip introductory college courses. Students who passed three AP exams in 2019 will receive the district's AP Scholars with Distinction Award. Students receiving this award at the October Board of Education meeting include Anthony Diaz-Rubalcava, Joshua Gann, Matthew Grafenauer, Joel Herrera, Jadyn Newman and Logan Rosinia-Cowan from TF South and Omar Magallanes and Melannie Sanchez from TF North. Students who passed two AP exams in 2019 will receive the district's AP Scholars with Honors Award at the October board meeting. Those receiving this award include Aidan Antonelli, Isabella Bonifazi, Mateo Duran, Skylar Gertonson, Tatiana Gutierrez, Jeremiah Manio, Angel Mclemore, Edward Olaleye, Jomareun Richardson, Austin Ver Wey, and Haley Ward from TF South and Victoria Richardson, Natalia Guzman, Jonathan Silva-Melendez, Maria Rodriguez, Daniela Saavedra, Israel Oluwole, and Sa'eedat Idris from TF North. District 215 students who passed one AP exam in 2019 will be acknowledged by the Board of Education at the November board meeting on November 26.

About Thornton Fractional High School District 215: District 215 serves the students of Burnham, Calumet City, Lansing, and Lynwood at Thornton Fractional North High School, Thornton Fractional South High School, Thornton Fractional Center for Academics and Technology, and Thornton Fractional Center for Alternative Learning. The mission of District 215 is to provide diverse learning opportunities that inspire all students to become life-long learners who contribute to their community.
